Darjeeling

Okayti White

(36.00/69.00/135.00 O-SF)

These hand-rolled, silver-haired buds infuse a pale golden colour with mellow, sweet notes of flower blossoms and honey.

Avongrove Imperial First Flush

(32.00/61.00/119.00 O-FF)

This spring pick from Darjeeling is bright and smooth with fresh floral notes and hints of sweet basil.

Upper Fagu First Flush

(26.00/49.00/95.00 FF)

This first flush Darjeeling has a wonderful round, smooth sweetness with hints of butternut squash and apricot syrup.

Okayti Moonshine FF

(40.00/77.00/151.00 O-FF)

A unique first flush from Okayti that is made from tea leaves plucked after midnight under a clear full moon and processed before the break of dawn. Infuses a light golden hue with notes of forest moss and a hint of honey.

Darjeeling Hoopoe Choice

(16.00/30.00/57.00 O-SF)

Tea Trader's house Darjeeling selection. Lively floral notes underlie a smooth, fruity, aromatic cup with good colour and sweetness.

Thurbo FTGFOP1 CL Wonder

(24.00/45.00/87.00 RA-SF)

Infusing light and golden, this second flush Darjeeling is smooth and sweet with subtle notes of honeydew melon.

Castleton FTGFOP1 Muscatel

(26.00/49.00/95.00 RA-SF)

From the distinguished Castleton Tea Estate, the dark leaves brew a full, amber cup with sweet notes of white peaches and a classic muscatel finish.

Bihar

Doke Black Fusion Tippy

(26.00/49.00/95.00 O-FF)

Bright, smooth with notes of sweet hay and malt, and an enduring finish of honey. Of the Assamica cultivar, this tea is hand-picked and hand-rolled.

Doke Green Diamond

(26.00/49.00/95.00 O-FF)

Doke Green Diamond feels pulled from the damp forest floor; mossy and nutty with an astringent pop that almost hides a slightly creamy note in the finish. Best keep this one for short infusions!

Doke Silver Needle

(36.00/49.00/135.00 O-SF)

The beautiful silver buds of this white tea infuse with aromatic hints of sweet pears and earthy notes of fresh, lightly fried potatoes.

AssamLatumoni Royal Tippy Black

(26.00/49.00/95.00 SF)

A remarkable hand-picked tea that brews a full, round, aromatic cup with honey and malt sweetness, and notes of fresh dates.

Harchurah SFTGFOP1S

(16.00/30.00/57.00 FF)

This spring Assam infuses light and bright with full notes of earthy pine forest, and a round honey and malt finish.

Muttuck TGFOP

(14.00/27.00/52.00 SF)

Infuses a deep amber cup with rich, round sweet notes of dark cocoa and malt.

Meleng Golden Tips

(21.00/39.00/75.00 SF-RA)

Striking golden tip yields a bright, aromatic brew with notes of citrus and cooked sugar, reminiscent of candied orange.

Harmutty STGFOP1S

(16.00/30.00/57.00 SF)

Long twisted leaves infuse a full-bodied cup with malty notes that hint at caramel and chocolate.

Colonel's Assam

(13.00/25.00/48.00 SF)

The Colonel's everyday classic! Full coloured, bright, cuppy tea with distinct malty notes.

Borpatra GFBOP

(14.00/27.00/52.00 SF)

This slightly tippy, broken leaf grade Assam brews a full-colour, smooth cup with sweet notes of golden raisins and fresh hay.

Ten Gardens

(13.00/25.00/48.00)

This traditional blend of 100% Assam CTC brews full and bright with classic malty notes and rich colour. Perfect for adding milk, cream, honey, sugar, spices...whatever your taste!

Namdang BP

(14.00/27.00/52.00)

A BP grade of Assam manufactured by the CTC method (crush, tear, curl). Brews full and dark with deep, malty notes that hint at cooked berries and bread dough.

Assam Broken Leaf Decaf

(18.00/34.00/65.00)

This broken grade, decaffeinated Assam provides plenty of malty flavour and strength that is suitable to drink any time of day.

NilgiriChamraj FOP

(16.00/30.00/57.00 FF)

This aromatic spring tea from the south of India infuses smooth and round with a wonderful berry and malt sweetness.

Nilgiri BOP

(13.00/25.00/48.00 SF)

Tea is grown at high elevation in the Blue Mountains, typically above 5000 feet. These teas are brisk, pungent and full-bodied often compared to those of Ceylon.

NepalSiddha Devi Black

(16.00/30.00/57.00 O-FF)

From the first flush in Nepal, this black tea infuses light and golden with a brisk, assertive floral character.

China

Organic Pinhead Gunpowder

(13.00/25.00/48.00 O)

Also known as Pearl tea, this offering has small, tightly rolled tender buds rendering a sweet aroma with an amber liquor and a soft honey, slightly smoky flavour.

Jasmine Teas

Yin Hao Jasmine

(21.00/39.00/75.00)

These elegantly shaped young leaves and buds have a wonderful jasmine bouquet, infusing smooth, round and sweet.

Jasmine and Flowers

(14.00/27.00/52.00)

Traditional green tea with the floral-sweet aroma of jasmine. The hard to mistake scent is derived from the repeated layering of tea leaves with jasmine blossoms.

Jasmine Dragon Pearls

(24.00/45.00/87.00)

Dragon Pearls are grown, steamed and hand rolled on farms in the Fujian Mountains from the top two leaves and the bud of new season growth. The infusion is light, fresh and sweet.

Anhui

Huang Shan Mao Feng

(21.00/39.00/75.00)

A classic Chinese green tea where only the new tea buds and the leaf next to the bud are picked. Light and fresh, slightly nutty with a floral sweetness and a pale apricot colour.

Keemun Hao Ya AA

(44.00/85.00/167.00)

If you enjoy Keemun teas, be sure not to miss this superlative grade and its full, wine-like sweetness.

Keemun Hao Ya A

(26.00/49.00/95.00)

This popular tea presents a full complement of complex flavours and aromas with full Keemun taste; sweet and a bit smokey with notes of unsweetened cocoa.

Keemun Black Mao Feng

(26.00/49.00/95.00)

This superior grade of Keemun is carefully processed in order to keep the leaves whole. These sleek, black leaves yield a rich infusion with a strong, sweet chocolatey aroma and flavour.

Imperial Black No. 10

(16.00/30.00/57.00)

A superior congou leaf possessing winey, full amber/red colour and the characteristic hint of smokiness of a quality Keemun.

Fujian

Mutan Silver Tips

(21.00/39.00/75.00 O)

Unrolled and only slightly oxidized, this white tea has a delicate 'peony' flavour with a crisp, lemony finish.

White Monkey

(21.00/39.00/75.00)

With leaves resembling the hands of a white-haired monkey, this delicate tea is picked early in the morning within the first two weeks of new growth. Herbal, vegetal aromas give way to the sweet notes of peach and apricot.

Organic Shui Hsien Oolong

(18.00/34.00/65.00 O)

This traditional oolong has natural orchid-like flavour with a lingering fragrance and possesses a clear, bright, amber colour.

Lichee Congou

(13.00/25.00/48.00)

A large leaf, black China scented tea with a very characteristic flavour derived from the fruit.

Dà Hóng Páo

(36.00/69.00/135.00)

This legendary tea, a Wuyi Rock Oolong, is offered as a premium grade tea brewing a deep gold/amber cup. The taste is smooth with a fragrant, fruity finish.

Rose Congou

(13.00/25.00/48.00)

Scented by rose petals to give a fragrant tea with delicate aroma and taste on the palate.

GuangdongGoddess of Mercy

(21.00/39.00/75.00)

This "jade" Tieguanyin oolong has a very flowery aroma with a fresh taste similar to that of green tea. Fragrant, fruity and delicate, its curled leaves can be infused several times.

Dan Cong Black Single Trunk

(40.00/77.00/151.00)

Brews smooth and sweet with distinct dried fruit notes (grapefruit and peach). A wild growing tea in the Phoenix Mountains.

Wild Lapsang Souchong

(40.00/77.00/151.00 O)

Wonderfully smooth and sweet with earthy forest notes of pine and a remarkable mouth-coating finish of honey. This Lapsang Souchong is not smoked but rather dried over local pine tree branches before a light firing.

Lapsang Souchong Superior Grade

(21.00/39.00/75.00 O)

A higher-grade version of the classic Lapsang Souchong. Has fine, golden tips with a much more subdued scent, resulting in a nice balance of sweetness and smoke. This tea is much closer to how Lapsang Souchong was historically made.

China Lapsang Souchong

(13.00/25.00/48.00)

With full charcoal smokiness, dark and thick, this large leaf Lapsang Souchong brews an esoteric cup...slight bitterness gives way to smokey-sweet notes of liquorice and pine.

Ancient Baked Heart Green

(28.00/53.00/108.00 O)

This tea is harvested from ancient tea trees that produce a high-quality green tea. The liquor is a light, golden green with medium body, notes of toasted rice and wild flowers. Grows at elevations of 6,000 to 7,200 feet on Wu Liang Mountain.

Ancient Artisan Bi Luo Chun

(32.00/61.00/119.00 O)

Toasted pine nut taste with a light sweet finish. This tea has a heartier, more full body than Bi Luo Chun from other regions.

Golden Monkey

(21.00/39.00/75.00)

This striking black tea (resplendent with large golden buds reminiscent of curled monkey paws) is rich, smooth and full bodied with deep earthy notes and an underlying sweetness of cedar and honey thrown in.

Golden Yunnan Special Grade

(42.00/81.00/159.00 O)

Comprised of only young buds, this beautiful tea is smooth and rich with complex brown sugar undertones and a hint of orange blossom.

Yunnan Moonlight White

(21.00/39.00/75.00)

Bright and smooth with earthy notes of hay and honeycomb. Noted for its distinct appearance, white on one side and shadowy grey on the other; the leaves are taken from trees over 400 years old.

Organic Moonlight White Cake (50.00/357g O)

This pressed white tea brews a dark golden infusion; smooth and pleasant with a lovely cooked sugar aroma. Very refreshing!

Yunnan Organic Green

(16.00/30.00/57.00 O)

A classic green tea from a province most noted for black; the golden infusion is bright and lively with a mild nuttiness.

Snow Dragon 1st Grade

(26.00/49.00/95.00 O)

With snowy white buds curving like a dragon, this delicate hand-rolled green tea brews a refreshing and sweet cup with a smooth vegetal richness.

Honeyfairyland Yellow 1st Grade

(26.00/49.00/95.00 O)

This tea has captivating floral top notes mingled with a smooth honeyed body and a subtle creamy, buttery finish.

Black Luo Cha Snail Shape

(21.00/39.00/75.00 O)

Tea leaves carefully rolled into the shape of a spiral. The infusion produces an amber-colored liquor that is as smooth as aged Pu-erh tea and has a malty sweet taste and lovely fragrance with a hint of chocolate and flowers.

Black Needle Cangyuan

(36.00/69.00/135.00 O)

This tea has a red apple, cocoa bean aroma and has been hand-roasted in a wok over wood fire in the traditional way. It takes its name from the shape of the leaf and its origin on the border of Myanmar. This is a rare organic tea not to be missed!

Yunnan Organic Black

(14.00/27.00/52.00 O)

This large tippy leaf tea brews a full coloured cup. Enjoy its spicy flavour with distinct flowery overtones.

Mengku Rich Valley Raw Pu Erh

(48.00/93.00/183.00 O)

Picked from rare, big leaf trees which grow at a staggering elevation of 7,200 feet on Wuliang Mountain. Bright, golden liquor with notes of tobacco and earthy wildness.

Pu Erh

(14.00/27.00/52.00)

Pu Erh is a form of aged, fermented tea. This variety, called shou or ripe pu erh, has undergone an accelerated step of fermentation known as piling before aging. Brews very smooth and earthy, missing all but a hint of astringency.

Pu Erh Palace Grade

(28.00/53.00/103.00 O)

This ripe, organic Pu Erh brews dark with an aroma of caramel, and notes of earthy sweet corn and chicory.

Yi Tribal Pu Erh Coins

(4.00/6g Coin O)

Hand-picked by both the Yi Tribe and Dai Tribe peoples, this deeply fermented tea brews earthy smooth with slight fruity notes and an autumn-like sweetness.

Ancient Phoenix Pu Erh

(58.00/113.00/223.00 O)

From ancient tea trees on a sustainable tea plantation on Wuliang Mountain, this ripe Pu Erh brews thick and rich with notes of mushroom, espresso, and unsweetened chocolate.

Ancient Purple Leaf Ball

(5.00/Ball O)

This hand-rolled raw, or sheng, Pu Erh from Wuliang Mountain has long, slender, slightly twisted leaves with purple and silver hues, and a sweet wood and cranberry fragrance.

Mini Tuo Cha

(16.00/30.00/57.00 O)

Made from the large leaf 'Da Ye' tea plant varietal, better known as Camellia Sinensis 'Assamica', these small, individually wrapped cakes of Pu Erh brew smooth and earthy with ripe fruit flavours. Just right for a mug or small pot; the leaves can be re-infused many, many times.

Tribute Pu Erh Cake

(50.00/357g O)

This 10-year-old, ripe Pu Erh brews dark and smooth with a pleasant, round sweetness. Slightly smoky with earthy notes of damp autumn leaves.

Yunnan Pu Erh Tea Brick

(28.00/240g)

In order to transport Pu Erh by mule caravan across the long and difficult Ancient Tea Horse Road, these teas were compressed into bricks, cakes and tuo cha shapes. Tea is brewed from broken chunks of these bricks and produces a rich, complex, and smooth infusion across many cups using the same leaf.

Organic Pu Erh Cake

(50.00/357g O)

Brews dark and smooth with an aroma of sweet corn and roasted sugar cane. Soft, earthy chicory and dark chocolate notes

ZhejiangDragonwell First Grade

(24.00/45.00/87.00 O)

The broad leaf has been minimally oxidized with a light to medium roast, giving it a rich taste and fresh aroma with a slightly creamy finish.

Jinxuan Milk Oolong

(21.00/39.00/75.00)

A high quality, hand-picked Jin Xuan tea leaf that's been subtly flavoured by a master tea blender to enhance the natural milk note of the Jin Xuan tea varietal.

Alishan Jinxuan Oolong

(36.00/69.00/135.00)

This true "milk", high mountain oolong has wonderful buttery, sweet notes with a remarkably smooth mouthfeel and a clean, fresh finish. No added flavouring required!

Osmanthus Oolong

(18.00/34.00/65.00)

This blend combines the creamy quality of a Jinxuan oolong with the fragrant and slightly fruity sweetness of osmanthus flowers.

Organic GABA Oolong

(21.00/39.00/75.00 O)

Infusing with distinctive notes of cooked raisins and a hint of bubbly creaminess, and a wonderful sweetness. Its unusual method of processing involves exposure to a nitrogen rich environment to boost the naturally occurring 'GABA'.

Taiwan Oriental Beauty

(44.00/85.00/167.00)

The taste is light and sweet, with a smooth honey and muscatel aroma giving it a unique flavour, not unlike a fine mellow, black tea.

Formosa Oolong

(13.00/25.00/48.00)

With classic nutty, peachy flavour, light body, very aromatic and devoid of astringency, this is a perfect refreshment for any time of day.

Orange Blossom Oolong

(13.00/25.00/48.00)

Combining the fine qualities of an oolong with orange petals results in slight sweetness and a delicate aroma.

BlackFormosa Lapsang Souchong

(13.00/25.00/48.00)

Possessing a well sized, slatey leaf with full body, pungency and a distinctive tarry flavour.

Taiwan Wild Black Shan Cha

(44.00/85.00/167.00)

Picked from wild trees, this mountain tea has a distinctive, pleasant honey aroma. The pleasant taste is well rounded with evocations of pastries and baked sweets with fruit notes similar to Japanese white peaches.

JapanOrganic Genmaicha

(18.00/34.00/65.00 O)

Mild, late-season Bancha tea blended with the pleasant, slightly sweet and nutty, caramel note of roasted or popped rice grains.

Organic Bancha

(14.00/27.00/52.00 O)

sweetness.

This late harvest green tea infuses a clear, pale yellow hue with subtle savory notes. Very easy to drink with no real astringency or

Organic Kukicha

(16.00/30.00/57.00 O)
